

Introduction

Apodatum, LLC values its visitors' and clients' privacy. This privacy policy is effective 01-01-2013. It summarizes what information we might collect from a registered user or other visitor ("you"), and what we will and will not do with it.

Please note that this privacy policy does not govern the collection and use of information by companies that Apodatum, LLC does not control, nor by individuals not employed or managed by Apodatum, LLC. If you visit a Web site that we mention or link to, be sure to review its privacy policy before providing the site with information.

What we do with your personally identifiable information

It is always up to you whether to disclose personally identifiable information to us, although if you elect not to do so, we reserve the right not to register you as a user or provide you with any products or services. "Personally identifiable information" means information that can be used to identify you as an individual, such as, for example:

- Your name, company, email address, phone number, billing address, physical address, and NPI number(s).
- Your [COMPANY NAME] user ID and password (if applicable).
- Any account-preference information you provide us.
- Session data for your login session, so that our computer can 'talk' to yours while you are logged in.

We may use your contact information to provide you with information we believe you need to know or may find useful, such as (for example) news about our services and products and modifications to the Terms of Service.

We may take commercially reasonable precautions to protect the information from loss, misuse and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration and destruction.

We will not use or disclose the information for any other purpose than to provide you with results from our software, except:

- as required by law, for example, in response to a subpoena or search warrant;
- to outside auditors who have agreed to keep the information confidential;
- as necessary to enforce the Terms of Service;
- as necessary to protect the rights, safety, or property of Apodatum, LLC, its users, or others.

Your privacy responsibilities

To help protect your privacy, be sure:

- not to share your user ID or password with anyone else;
- to log off the Apodatum Web site when you are finished;
- to take customary precautions to guard against “malware” (viruses, Trojan horses, bots, etc.), for example by installing and updating suitable anti-virus software.

Changes to this privacy policy

We reserve the right to change this privacy policy as we deem necessary or appropriate because of legal compliance requirements or changes in our business practices. If you have provided us with an email address, we will endeavor to notify you, by email to that address, of any material change to how we will use personally identifiable information.

Questions or comments?

If you have questions or comments about Apodatum, LLC’s privacy policy, send email to info@apodatum.com, or contact us via any of the ways described on our Home Page located at www.apodatum.com.
